

THE TAJ MAHAL PALACE
MUMBAI

One of the original grand hotels of the world, The Taj Mahal Palace, Mumbai, has grown to become an integral part of the city's history and, indeed, its heart. Determined to give Bombay a landmark that would place it amongst the world's greatest cities, Jamsetji N. Tata built this icon in 1903. At the time, it was probably the only place in the world where a British Viceroy could rub shoulders with an Indian Maharajah. Predating the Gateway of India by almost two decades, the Taj welcomed the world to the city's shores. As decades passed and its reputation spread, the guests grew even more varied. It has been home to heads of state and celebrities, kings & queens and hollywood royalty, maharajahs and rockstars. In fact, The Taj Mahal Palace, Mumbai, represented a 'global village' before the term became a cliché.

ROOMS & SUITES

The hotel's tradition of gracious hospitality, high living and impeccable service continues in the renovated rooms and suites. The hotel offers a choice of 543 unique rooms & suites across both hotel buildings.

SUITES

Each suite is adorned with a charming theme, rich textures and hues, and an opulent décor. The lavish Bell Tower Suite evokes the romance of a seafaring sojourn. The Maratha and Lotus suites have their own integral leitmotif, paying homage to the great warrior tribe and the national flower of the land, respectively. The Ravi Shankar suite offers a glimpse into the musical maestro's stellar career.

THE TAJ MAHAL PALACE

The 285 rooms and suites at The Taj Mahal Palace have been completely restored by some of the world's most acclaimed designers. The corridors stand testimony to a century-old heritage, with genuine artifacts and antiques gracing the aisles. Guests have a choice of rooms that overlook the city or pool or face the Gateway of India and the Arabian Sea.

---

TATA SUITE

---

In honour of the man and his vision, the luxurious TATA Suite, is named after Jamsetji Tata, the founder of the Taj and the House of Tata. The suite is a befitting tribute to the Indian industry and society, as well as to the glorious art and architecture of the colonial history of India.

RAJPUT SUITE

---

Get a glimpse of the splendour of the Royals of Rajputana in the Rajput Suite. A regal maximalist living space where restraint has no place.

RAVI SHANKAR SUITE

---

In 1966, George Harrison checked into The Taj Mahal Palace hotel under an assumed name and studied sitar under Pandit Ravi Shankar and it was to commemorate this legendary occasion that the Ravi Shankar suite was created.

BELL TOWER

---

Situated under one of the domes of The Taj Mahal Palace, the Bell Tower Suite is designed to resemble the traditional structure from which it gets its name. With its corner location, this suite gives a sense of being on the edge of the world, rising to the clouds, with an enthralling view of the sea.

TAJ MAHAL TOWER

---

With its arched balconies, the Taj Mahal Tower stands in harmonious contrast to palace. Opened in 1973, the 258 rooms and suites offer a refreshing mix of European and Indian accents. Guests have a choice of rooms that overlook the city or face the Gateway of India and the Arabian Sea.

APOLLO SUITES

---

The Taj Mahal Tower is a home to the newest addition to our suite portfolio- The Apollo Suites. These spacious one-bedroom suites, featuring elegant marble flooring and stunning sea views, exude a modern charm. Guests also enjoy exclusive access to designated venues for afternoon tea and happy hours.

APOLLO ROOMS

---

Situated atop the Taj Mahal Tower, the city and sea-facing rooms provide curated amenities to elevate the guest's stay. These offerings are tailored to cater to the evolving needs of new-age business and leisure travelers. Additionally, guests enjoy privileged access to specific venues for afternoon tea and happy hours, enhancing their overall experience.
