Rambagh Palace

Jaipur

Location

Symmetrical design, airy verandahs, and idyllic front lawns dotted with peacocks – a destination spread over 47 tranquil acres of verdant, ornamental gardens; Rambagh Palace is an architectural masterpiece. Amalgamation of Rajput and Mughal architecture with astonishing interiors, the palace was lovingly built by the Maharajas of Jaipur. Standing witness to time, a walk through Rambagh Palace takes you back in history. Once the residence of Maharaja Sawai Man Singh II and his beautiful queen, Maharani Gayatri Devi, Rambagh Palace is a living legend of Rajputana history. Gracious hospitality, stepped in tradition, completes the royal lifestyle experience & evokes the splendour of royal India at its best.

Old walled city of Jaipur and known to all as the fabled Pink City is at a 2 km distance. Drive 11 kms to the airport or 4 kms to the railway station, you are not far from anywhere within the destination.
