Rebak Island Resort

Langkawi
A Taj Hotel

Location

Rebak Island Resort, a secluded and charming cluster of timbered villas & rooms, is the only resort on the privately owned 390 acre Rebak Island that commands a magnificent view of the Straits of Senari bordering the Andaman Sea. The Rebak Island, named after the native Rebak tree, is one of the 99 isles that make up the legendary Langkawi.

It is 4 kms away from the main island of Langkawi and a 15 minute ferry ride from Port Langkasuka Jetty.

Accommodation

82 rooms. The timbered villas & rooms, set in clusters, are shaded by palm trees. Clumps of tamarind, coconut and local herbs enhance the rustic ambience. The beautiful landscaped gardens of the resort have lush tropical flora and a tropical forest in the background. The resort's landscape allows most rooms to enjoy clear views of the Senari Straits.

The villas & rooms are designed in contemporary tones and furnished with ethnic artifacts inspired by traditional Malay arts and crafts. The newly appointed rooms have wooden flooring with contemporary interiors that exude the charm of a Malaysian dwelling.
