SIMHACHALAM
The temple dedicated to Lord Vishnu at Simhachalam has incredible inscriptions dating back to the 11th century, as well as a 13th-century main shrine with carved stone panels. Located 16km outside Visakhapatnam, it is Andhra Pradesh’s second-most visited temple after Tirumala.

Sited within the decommissioned INS Kurusura, the Submarine Museum on Ramakrishna Beach is a fascinating showcase of life under the sea, in the form of artefacts, photographs, written scripts and instruments. Six guides and a curator – all retired Indian Navy personnel – add to the experience.

THE BORRA CAVES
The atmospheric Borra Caves house a marvelous collection of stalactites and stalagmites in a variety of shapes. Look for Lord Shiva and Parvati, a lion reaching out to make the kill, Lord Hanuman and a Shilingam. Do carry your own torch.

The Aircraft Museum, The mighty war-hero TU-142, whose call sign is Albatross is to be INS Kursura’s neighbor. TU-142, designed by Tupolev and manufactured in Russia has served 30,000 flight hours.
