Jharokha

Jharokha is an overhanging balcony used in Indian architecture, typically in Rajasthan. One of the most important functions it served was to allow women to see the events outside without being seen. In olden days this was a place for special get together; today Jharokha is a multi cuisine restaurant. With its scalloped arched frames overlooking the serene waters of lake Pichola, it offers a vibrant array of delicacies from all over the world. Enjoy a contemporary word cuisine with Asian and Continental overtones. Soothing views of the lake and the City Palace add much to the restful ambience.
